Council to co-host social gathering

Spend a fun evening with members of Council 13366 and the St. Joseph Old Cathedral Altar Society.

The social event, featuring snacks and games, is scheduled for 5 p.m. Jan. 28.

It will be in the parish hall.

Plans will be finalized during the council's Jan. 8 meeting.

Council and Altar Society members attending are asked to bring their favorite snack.

Both groups will provide drinks.

Various games will be played.

Members of both groups will be encouraged to invite prospective members to consider joining either group.

All council and society members and their spouses are invited.

Mark your calendars and make an effort to attend.

Knights postpone meeting a week

The January meeting of Council 13366 will be a week later.

The usual meeting is the first Sunday of the month. But because the New Year holiday falls on a Sunday this year, the meeting is being postponed until Jan. 8.

It will be 11 a.m. in the religious education building.

Make a New Year's resolution to attend as many meetings as you can. Meetings last about an hour. They are a good way to keep up with what's going on and to visit with brother Knights.

Mark your calendars

The Mass schedule for the feast of the Solemnity of Mary, Jan. 1, is the same as typical weekend Masses: 4 p.m. Saturday, and 8 and 10 a.m., noon and 4 p.m. Sunday.

Annual dues owed Jan. 1

Knights of Columbus Council members are reminded that annual membership dues to the Knights of Columbus are due this month.

Annual dues are $24.

Council members are urged to pay their dues during the Jan. 9 meeting. Members should have received a statement in the mail from Financial Secretary Frank Kellert.

Prompt payment will save additional mailing costs.

Council 13366 has new agent

A new Knights of Columbus insurance field agent has been assigned to Council 13366.

Rob Blakely is available to meet with brother Knights about their insurance needs or existing coverage.

His telephone number is 243-8324. His email is robert.blakely@kofc.org.

Making a difference for life.

In 1969, the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God, formerly celebrated on Oct. 11, was transferred to Jan. 1. This is a good time to think about Mary's life as Jesus' mother and as our mother.

My Corner

Michael McNutt

By the time you read this, most of the Christmas decorations in neighborhoods and in stories will be just a memory. Too bad.

The Catholic Church's Christmas season started the night of Dec. 24. It ends Jan. 9, the day after we celebrate the feast of Epiphany when the Three Wise Men make it to Bethlehem.

The Jan. 9 feast of the Baptism of the Lord is the last day of the Christmas season.

You might want to keep some Christmas decorations up in your home until the Christmas season ends.

A priest I know always was disappointed to see Christmas trees discarded on the curb on the afternoons of Christmas Day. Many times on his way home to celebrate Christmas with his family, he would come across several discarded Christmas trees.

It seems as if merchants and others put up Christmas displays earlier each year. And the rush seems just as great to take them down.

Try to make the season last.
