Bring items for Sanctuary center

Brother Knights are encouraged to donate items to the Sanctuary Women's Development Center, a program to help homeless women. Staff at the center, the former Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, help women find jobs and housing.

The center is supported by Catholic Charities.

Council 13366 members voted last year to donate items to the center and bring them to the monthly council meetings.

Brother John Leon is coordinating the effort.

If you pledged to bring an item and forgot what it is, call John at 557-1441.

Items needed include healthy snacks, such as individually wrapped school lunch snacks, drinks, feminine hygiene items, adult diapers and baby diapers, tissues, heavy-duty hair-brushes and combs, toilet paper, cooking utensils, cleaning supplies, towels, and pillows and pillow cases.

Life is changed, not taken away.

Knights needed to pray rosary

Council 13366 members are encouraged to lead the rosary before Masses on the first weekend of the month.

Members also are asked to attend the praying of the rosary to show support for this ministry.

Mark your calendars

All Saints Day is a holy day of obligation. Check the bulletin for Mass schedules. A vigil Mass is set for 6:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 31.

Center of Family Love picnic

Council 13366 Deputy Grand Knight John Richard tends to grilling the food while Warden Dan Watkins sits and takes a break during the council's picnic Saturday, Sept. 17, for residents of the Center of Family Love in Okarche. Several Brother Knights helped out in the event, which was coordinated by Recorder Mike Schuman. A special thanks to Angie Meier, wife of Brother Knight Benny Meier, who continued her practice of baking dozens of cookies for the picnic lunch. Thanks to all who helped.

Be expecting a phone call. Council 13366 members will decide at their October meeting whether to continue with serving a meal each quarter. Because of a lack of available space, the Knight have discontinued holding quarterly breakfasts during the school year. Two religious education classes are held in the parish hall and adult classes are in the bride's room. The classes start at 9 a.m. so it's impossible to serve a breakfast after the 8 a.m. Mass. There is enough time to start cooking after classes adjourn at 10 a.m. to serve parishioners after he 11 a.m. Mass, but it takes more volunteers to set up tables and prepare the items so breakfast will be ready on time. In the past, the council has held dinners after the 4 p.m. Masses, but response from parishioners has been mixed. If the council goes ahead with a meal next month, expect a phone call.

Also, expect a call seeking help on a special project this month. There's a job for everyone, so hope to see you there. Be ready to say yes.
